

ORDINANCE NO. 2019-_____

ORDINANCE amending the City of Yakima Municipal Code Chapter 11.04 Building Code

WHEREAS, the use of steel, intermodal shipping containers (containers) as permanent or temporary storage buildings is a viable method to store goods; and

WHEREAS, many City of Yakima businesses see the use of containers for storage as a secure and economical way to store equipment or inventory related to their businesses; and

WHEREAS, the Building Code requires permits for temporary storage buildings that are placed up to 180 days; and

WHEREAS, the Building Code also requires that all buildings be provided with a foundation that will resist the forces of earthquake and wind, and be installed deep enough below grade so as not to be affected by frost; and

WHEREAS, the building official has evaluated the use of containers as accessory storage, and when, under certain conditions, it may be appropriate to allow containers to be placed and used by businesses without the need for foundations within the City of Yakima; and

WHEREAS, the proposed amendment to the Building Code section 105.2 adds to the list of items exempt from building permits containers that are temporarily placed at job sites or events that have other valid permits, and provided they meet all other laws of the jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, after evaluation, it was determined that due to the unique methods used to construct containers, that there are conditions that would warrant their limited use without foundations as long as businesses meet specific requirements; and

WHEREAS, the proposed addition to the Building Code, section 1801.1.1 would exempt certain containers from the requirement to be placed on a foundation prescribed in Chapter 18 of the building code, provided that the container meets all other provisions of the building code; and

WHEREAS, the building official has evaluated and determined that containers used as temporary storage at job sites or events that are under a valid permit, may be placed without the need for permits specific to such containers; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that it is in the best interest of businesses in the City of Yakima to allow the use of containers as permanent or temporary accessory storage with specific requirements; now, therefore,
