Dear City Council,

The Lodging Tax Advisory Committee (LTAC) met on August 26th to review applications for the 2022 Budget Lodging Tax. The committee received several applications during the publicly-noticed application period from March 1st through July 1st.

The committee recommendation utilizes a 2022 Lodging Tax Revenue forecast of $1,482,000, based on actuals through July 2021 and on hotel interactions with event and meeting planners. The committee sought to prioritize both city-owned facilities while seeking to reinvest lodging tax to maximize overnight hotel stays to the greatest extent possible.

The committee's budgetary recommendation is as follows:
