Growing Opportunities, Cultivating Success:
Invest in Yakima County's Economic Future

Prospective Investor

What can YCDA do to mitigate the economic challenges facing Yakima County businesses while capitalizing on the opportunities for growth?

To answer this question, confidential Feasibility Study interviews were conducted with 56 local business, community, and elected representatives. Interviewees were asked about Yakima County's economy, YCDA's effectiveness and the 2024-2028 Strategic Plan Prospectus. Their feedback identified workforce skills, infrastructure, and perception of our communities as the key challenges we face. Our region's natural resources, innovation, airport, mill site and downtown/main streets were seen as the greatest economic opportunities.

The community spoke, and YCDA utilized the Feasibility Study results to finalize its 2024-2028 Strategic Plan. This brochure details our plan and dedication to leveraging our county's unique resources, talents, and opportunities to create a thriving business environment. By investing in YCDA you become an essential partner in our mission to foster economic growth through our strategic initiatives.

"Economic Development is not something YCDA does to the community, it is what YCDA does with the community."

We start with the building blocks of any community, its people. Our workforce is paramount. YCDA will continue to work with our partners to prepare the existing workforce with the skills needed to meet the current and evolving labor needs. YCDA alone can't fix the social issues of poverty, homelessness, and crime, but we can be at the table where these issues are being addressed and ensure the business community is part of the solution. (Initiative 1, pg. 6)

From there, we work directly with the building blocks of any economy, its businesses. YCDA will continue daily business outreach and engagement to understand their challenges and explore resources. To eliminate accessibility barriers, we will visit each community in the Valley and provide business owners with one-on-one assistance in English and Spanish. Through new partnerships with accelerators and regional start-up investors, YCDA will bring financial investment to the county to support high-growth entrepreneurship. (Initiative 2, pg. 7)

To bring outside investment to the Valley, YCDA will target businesses that compliment our existing industry clusters to locate in Yakima County. Attracting business and industry that match our needs and competitive advantages results in win-win solutions. This will also provide jobs for our residents and attract new talent to our communities. (Initiative 4, pg. 9)

Finally, for our economy to grow we need infrastructure to support new development. Over $125 million will be spent on new infrastructure in the next five years. Large projects at the mill site, the airport, and cities and port districts across the valley will create shovel-ready sites supporting economic growth and jobs. (Initiative 3, pg. 8)

This brings us back to where we started, the basic building blocks, Yakima County's people, and its businesses. Economic Development is not something YCDA does to the community, it is what YCDA does with the community. With increased financial support and its network of over fifty resource partners, YCDA is uniquely positioned with the essential resources needed for Yakima Valley's economy to flourish.

Jonathan Smith, CECD

Jonathan Smith, CECD
Executive Director
Yakima County Development Association

What is the Yakima County Development Association (YCDA)?

YCDA is a nonprofit (501c3) organization dedicated to Yakima County's business environment and livability. While the fundamentals of Economic Development remain business retention, expansion, and attraction, our work fosters solutions to Yakima Valley's unique economic challenges.

Our professional staff delivers no-cost services to entrepreneurs, start-ups, all-sized businesses, franchises, global corporations, and Fortune 500 companies.

Our specific work includes:

- Daily outreach and engagement with businesses
- Business & Talent Attraction
- Site Selector Inquires & Follow up
- Facilitate local planning, revitalization, and development
- Training in English & Spanish

How is YCDA Unique?

YCDA is Yakima County's designated Associate Development Organization (ADO) appointed by the County Commissioners. Each county in Washington State is represented by an ADO to further its economic development goals. ADOs are the principal contact for the state Department of Commerce and all county Economic Development elements (businesses, towns, ports, chambers, etc.) to coordinate their efforts. YCDA's performance and expertise is critical to growing the economy and building communities.

How is YCDA Funded?

We are funded solely by public and private contributions, including grants. Every five years a capital campaign is launched to secure commitments to fund the following five-year strategic plan. Due to the direct and indirect financial impact of our work, YCDA contributors are recognized as Investors.

"As the designated ADO for Yakima County, YCDA has a strong track record of services resulting in new jobs, new tax revenue, and economic vitality for the community. Now is the time to commit additional funding for YCDA as it takes on exciting and additional responsibilities to further the Yakima County economy."

*Suzanne Dale Estey, Executive Director
Washington Economic Development Association*

1st YCDA Board President,
Mr. Allen Pruett

"Coca-Cola Company was proud to sponsor YCDA's support of small businesses. Three hundred small businesses throughout the Valley received training in financial management, accessing capital, marketing, digital literacy, and other business development skills. Providing these trainings in both English and Spanish ensured Yakima's diverse business community could fully participate."

Initiative #1: Build a Strong Workforce: Train, Attract & Retain

Feasibility Study Key Take-away: Address the immediate and emerging needs of businesses and workers so all can thrive in Yakima County.

YCDA Role:

- Connect Yakima County businesses with existing training programs to meet their workforce needs.
- Develop and deploy customized year-round training with partner organizations to address the professional development needs of local employers.
- Track and report workforce trends for Yakima County's key industry clusters.
- Strengthen methods of connecting local graduates with local jobs.

NEW

Serve as Liaison for the business community and the many organizations that work to improve and promote Yakima Valley as a great place to live and work. Inform stakeholders of progress in these areas and how they can participate in solutions.

Success Story:

Resources for Employee Retention & Development

YCDA co-hosted the "Workers Wanted" conference, where local business leaders learned how to access programs and dollars to retain and train their workforce.

"YCDA took time to learn about our in-home care business's unique challenges. They connected us with the 'Shared Work' program, which turned out to be a fit for our business and will allow us to keep our highly trained employees working through the ups and downs of our business cycle."

Teyla Smith & Patrina Williams, Certified Senior Care Manager
Mother's Arms Homecare, LLC.

"The 'Workers Wanted' conference introduced Yakima Chief Hops to programs designed to increase competitiveness, avert potential layoffs, and upskill our workforce. With the state's SharedWork program we are seeing the benefits of cost savings, employee satisfaction and employee retention. We have also been successful in securing worker training funding through the Job Skills and Incumbent Working Training Programs."

Lisa Garcia, Chief People Officer
Yakima Chief Hops

Initiative #2: Diversify our Business Ecosystem for Agriculture and Beyond

Feasibility Study Key Take-away: Build upon the stability of our Agricultural foundation by supporting Innovation & Entrepreneurship.

YCDA Role:

- Provide one-on-one business outreach in English and Spanish with local businesses to facilitate timely solutions to their unique needs.
- Continue to host WSU's Small Business Development Center (SBDC) certified Advisor.
- Assist businesses to navigate site selection, permitting, regulations, workforce, and funding.
- Host large-scale resource fairs to connect business owners with subject matter experts in Strategy, Entrepreneurship, and Business Development.
- Host events to showcase local business accomplishments.
- Maintain a comprehensive online database of local businesses to guide strategic decisions.
- Provide leadership to establish a professionally managed venture capital investment fund that is overseen by local leaders.
- Provide industry-specific training to craft beverage, Ag-tech, Childcare, and other industry clusters.

NEW

Mobile Computer Lab for convenient digital and financial literacy training in English and Spanish.

Success Story:

COVID-19 Business Assistance

YCDA administered $12 million in CARES Act Grants that impacted roughly 1 out of every 4 businesses in Yakima County.

- 6,000 jobs supported
- Awarded "Tourism Ambassador 2022" Business Key to Recovery
- Identified training needs for marginalized business owners to access resources to grow their business.

"The Washington SBDC is pleased to partner with YCDA to create a community of collaboration and equity where all small businesses can grow and succeed. As the local SBDC funding partner, YCDA is home to one of our 10+ bilingual business advisors across the state who provide confidential, no-cost, one-on-one business advising in English and Spanish. Together we are reducing barriers and cultivating opportunities."

Sheryl McGrath, State Director
Washington Small Business Development Centers

Initiative #3: Bring New Industry, Jobs, and Investment to Yakima County

Feasibility Study Key Take-away: Attract companies that match Yakima County's needs, assets, and competitive advantages.

YCDA Role:

- Proactively maintain and develop relationships with site selectors and local commercial real estate professionals.
- Research, identify, and target companies that align with local development goals, and have growth potential to support our economy.
- Assist businesses from outside the area to establish operations in Yakima County.
- Develop and distribute compelling marketing materials to targeted industry site selectors.
- Invite local businesses to co-exhibit at select trade shows.

NEW

Target logistics and transportation companies that can meet the needs of our industrial and agricultural sectors.

Success Story:

Pacific Ag Renewables Sunnyside, WA

Pacific Ag's new renewable natural gas facility will employ 30 full-time people at an average loaded salary of $68,379 per year and convert an estimated 900,000 tons of regional dairy waste, diverted from lagoons, into 800,000 MMBtu of renewable natural gas annually. Construction is scheduled to begin later in 2023.

"YCDA's expertise was pivotal in locating Pacific Ag Renewables $100 million bioenergy facility site on 60 acres in Sunnyside, Washington. YCDA identified the ideal site at the Port of Sunnyside and connected us with a variety of resources including funding for public infrastructure that the Port has now secured to support our project and future development."

Kipp Curtis, Renewables Regional Manager
Pacific Ag Renewables

Initiative #4: Develop Infrastructure for a Thriving Economy

Feasibility Study Key Take-away: Facilitate public and private partnership to increase the number of shovel-ready sites in Yakima County.

YCDA Role:

- Identify, qualify, and advise project funding through the Supporting Investments in Economic Development (SIED) program.
- Provide economic impact analysis for public works projects that support job and business growth.
- Help reduce the costs and risks associated with private development.
- Assist local cities and the county in streamlining and improving permitting and regulatory processes.
- Support and pursue funding for transportation, private & public utilities, and broadband throughout Yakima County.
- Provide economic development training and advice to local cities and towns.

NEW

Maintain an online countywide infrastructure map to guide strategic investment.

Success Story:

Midvale Industrial Park Port of Sunnyside, WA

Yakima County's SIED program was instrumental in financing water, sewer, and road infrastructure to expand the Midvale Industrial Park. These infrastructure improvements allow Yakima County to compete with neighboring counties and states for development projects that were previously out of reach.

"YCDA played a critical role in connecting the Port and City of Sunnyside with over $12 million in funding. These dollars will construct infrastructure to open over 400 acres to industrial development helping to grow jobs and industry that will positively impact Yakima County for years to come."

Jay Hester, Executive Director
Port of Sunnyside

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

"YCDA is such an asset for the Yakima Valley. We view them as a knowledge hub for businesses operating in Yakima, as well as prospective businesses considering a move here. You can use them as a resource on issues ranging from best hiring practices, new regulations, to infrastructure. This valley is fortunate to have an organization like YCDA."

Andy Marble, President & COO, Horizon Distribution, Inc.

"YCDA provides expertise and economic development support to the City of Grandview. As a small Community with limited resources, we are more competitive because of the professional assistance from the YCDA staff."

Cus Arteaga, City Administrator, City of Grandview

"YCDA is a means for diverse stakeholders to come together and create opportunity for others. Whether it be building human capital, breaking ground on a commercial project, or promoting our beautiful valley to prospective businesses, YCDA has an impressive assemblage of resources available. Perrault Farms Inc. is a proud supporter."

Jeff Perrault, Vice President, Perrault Farms

"YCDA is a great contributor to the economy of the County. It's success is shown in many ways; recruiting new business and jobs, providing skills and sustainability for new and existing businesses, locating commercial property and finding grants and low interest loans to assist new and existing business expansion. The City of Union Gap has always supported YCDA."

John Hodkinson, Position #1, City of Union Gap

"YCDA is uniquely positioned to impact and improve the Yakima valley. My investment with YCDA is money well spent by supporting existing business and attracting new companies to the county. The team is exceptional and provides an incredible professional approach to local economic development."

Moriet Miketa, Broker/Owner, Heritage Real Estate Group

"We invest in YCDA because it is the organization that strengthens the economic engine of our valley which we believe will improve the quality of life of residents for generations to come. Our Valley is blessed with plentiful natural advantages: climate, soil, geography, and water. We can only fully achieve the benefits of this special place with a thriving business community that works in tandem with our local institutions to thoughtfully pursue growth."

Sean Gilbert, General Manager, Gilbert Orchards

"With the important addition of bilingual support for small businesses in our rural area, YCDA is able to support our many local businesses, their employees, and entrepreneurs whose primary language may be Spanish. With a focused and inclusive approach to community development, we're seeing the impact of a community working together more successfully for a thriving and collaborative community."

2022 Feasibility Study

Report Highlights: Confidential interviews were conducted with 50 community leaders. Interviewees were asked about Yakima County's economy and YCDA's effectiveness, including feedback on the 2024-2028 Strategic Plan Prospectus.

$4 million Campaign goal

Most felt that raising $8M was not realistic. YCDA's campaign is regarded as essential however multiple campaigns will utilize the same local resources.

Purpose and Impact

Most acknowledge positive results from specific YCDA programs or activities. The SIED program, small business support and business recruitment stood out most.

Asking rights remain strong

The effectiveness of YCDA and staff rated well. The board is perceived as excellent and respected. YCDA's economic impact and ROI provide unique advantages in securing philanthropic funding.

Initiatives rated as necessary

Developing workforce, infrastructure, new business attraction and supporting small business were rated "absolutely necessary".

Pertinent Projects

The status of the mill site, airport, downtowns, tribal relations, and inter-county transportation reflect on YCDA. Lack of progress with these projects concern many.

Yakima County economy is good

The stability agriculture provides our economy is clear. The need to diversify and advance within and beyond agriculture is top of mind. In 2017, the economy was perceived as "very good".

Natural Strengths

Yakima Valley's land, climate and central location are celebrated. Affordability, outdoor recreation, and the generosity of residents were also touted.

Agreement on challenges

Limited workforce skills, healthcare, K-12 education, "shovel-ready" property, housing and state legislative policies remain obstacles to business success.

Can YCDA help with these issues?

All mentioned the negative impact of crime, homelessness and poor curb appeal on area businesses and the ability to recruit and retain talent.

Partnership roles & responsibilities

Clarification of organizational roles in joint initiatives will optimize efficiency and client experience.

12-month campaign recommended

Start campaign quiet phase to obtain pledges totaling >$2M, then launch public phase.

Stretch goal is $4.5M. Suggested minimum investment level is $5,000 ($1,000 annually, 2024-2028).

Keys to campaign success

Prioritize solicitations with board members, top 20 historical public & private investors and new prospects. Average pledge increase to achieve goal is 33%. Target completion of all solicitations before Q4 holiday season.

Quotes From Our Partners

Workforce Development

"South Central Workforce (SCW) works closely with YCDA to align our initiatives to attract, retain, and train our workforce to meet industry demand. YCDA plays a vital role helping us develop these talent pipelines, working together with SCW to upskill our labor force and connect with local business to create employment opportunities and raise incomes in the Yakima Valley."

Amy Martinez, CEO, South Central Workforce

"YCDA is an important partner agency in AJAC's mission to develop our workforce and retain talent in Yakima County. YCDA helps us connect industry leaders in the manufacturing sector to our training and youth apprenticeship programs, ensuring our manufacturers have access to a reliable and well-trained workforce while participating students develop the skills necessary to succeed and gain rewarding employment."

Heather Fisher, Manager of Business Development & Regional Services, Aerospace Joint Apprenticeship Committee

Advance & Diversify Local Business

"YCDA is our local conduit to Manufacturers in Yakima County. Since 2019, they've connected us to over 30 small to mid-size manufacturers such as Tree Top, Yakima Chief Hops, Liberty Bottle, and McClarin Composites. This collaboration has created or retained 507 jobs, increased/retained sales by $26.7 million, and helped local manufacturers realize $6.2 million in cost savings."

Steve Capuano, Account Executive, Impact Washington

Targeted Business Attraction

"The Department of Commerce works closely with the Yakima County Development Association to coordinate recruitment of new businesses, respond to site selector requests for buildable sites, and promote business in Washington State. Partners like YCDA provide a critical connection between the state and local economic development strategies and are critical to building communities and growing the economy."

Chris Green, Assistant Director, Office of Economic Development & Competitiveness, WA. State Department of Commerce

"As a member organization of the Eastern Washington Economic Development Alliance (EWEDA), YCDA is a key partner in our marketing and business recruitment mission. YCDA plays a strategic role helping the EWEDA attract Ag-Tech and other key industries to our region."

Stephen McFadden, Director of Economic Development & Marketing, Port of Pasco

Infrastructure

"The Yakima County Commissioners rely on YCDA to execute a variety of targeted initiatives to create jobs and grow our local economy, including administrating the Supporting Investments in Economic Development (SIED) program on behalf of Yakima County. In this capacity YCDA identifies, qualifies, and evaluates funding applications. Since 2019, over 20 development projects have been funded through the program, totaling $23,164,855 in public infrastructure improvements and creating over 750 job."

Kyle Curtis, County Commissioner, Yakima County
